First Home Plus

April 2004

This is an interim factsheet only. It relates to contracts executed between 4 April 2004 and 30 June 2004

- help for first home and land buyers in NSW
- exemptions or discounts on stamp duty
- no income or assets test to qualify

How First Home Plus works

First Home Plus, the NSW Government's stamp duty scheme for first home buyers, provides exemptions or discounts on transfer stamp duty and mortgage duty for first home buyers and builders in NSW.

From 4 April 2004, homes valued up to $500 000 are duty-free for first home buyers. Discounts are available on stamp duty between $500 000 and $600 000.

First home buyers purchasing a vacant block of residential land will pay no stamp duty on land valued up to $300 000. Discounts are available on stamp duty between $300 000 and $450 000.

The new discounts apply equally to first home buyers anywhere in NSW.

Who is eligible?

- There is no income or assets test to qualify for First Home Plus.
- The exemptions and discounts apply to first home or land contracts signed on or after 4 April 2004. Different eligibility criteria applied before this date.
- You are not eligible if any of the purchasers has previously received benefits under First Home Plus. However, since 1 July 2001, First Home Plus benefits apply where a purchaser, who has previously received First Home Plus benefits, is acquiring an interest in a property solely for the purpose of assisting the other purchaser or purchasers to obtain finance.
- You qualify for the scheme if at least one of the purchasers has never owned and occupied a residential property in any State or Territory within Australia.

- You are not disqualified if you have owned vacant land or a commercial property.
- Companies, partnerships, trustees, a business premises, holiday house or renovations to an existing building do not qualify.

Discounts on duty

Under First Home Plus, the amount of stamp duty and mortgage duty you pay on your contract and mortgage is determined by the purchase price for your home or its value, whichever is higher.

The following tables give a guide to stamp and mortgage duty discounts available under First Home Plus.

How to apply

You will need to complete a First Home Plus application available from OSR, your solicitor or conveyancer.

You submit your First Home Plus application at the same time you lodge your purchase agreement for stamping by OSR.

You must have already exchanged contracts to purchase your first home or vacant land. You will need to consult your lender about the discount on mortgage duty. Please note your application must be accompanied by all supporting documents.

False claims

The Taxation Administration Act 1996 provides penalties for knowingly giving false or misleading information. Substantial penalties can be imposed.

OSR audits claims with current and historical data held by other State and Territory agencies.
