Addendum to First Home Owner Grant Application Form

To Claim the Extra $7000 Grant for New Homes

When does the extra $7000 payment apply?

The First Home Owner Grant provides for an extra $7000 grant to the existing $7000 First Home Owner Grant, for the construction or purchase of eligible new homes where the contract is made, or in the case of owner builders, where construction starts, on or after 9 March 2001 and on or before 31 December 2001.

Where the consideration* is less than $14 000 the applicant will be entitled to a grant equal to the value of the consideration.

* NOTE: Consideration is the purchase price or the value of the construction contract or the construction costs of the home but does not include owner builders own labour.

What is a new home?

- The home must have never been previously occupied as a residence, including occupation by the builder, a tenant or other occupant.
- Where a home is being purchased, it must be the first sale of that home.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the extra $7000 grant you must satisfy:

- all the eligibility requirements for the existing $7000 First Home Owner Grant, which commenced on 1 July 2000 ➤ Please refer to the First Home Owner Grant factsheet for details of the existing $7000 grant and
- the other eligibility requirements in either Part A, B, C or D of this addendum.

This addendum will be considered with the information contained in your 'Application for First Home Owner Grant Scheme' form – OFH 001.

Only new home purchases and constructions are eligible for the extra $7000.

You are not eligible to claim the extra grant if your contract, being the subject of this application, replaces a contract made before 9 March 2001.

Penalties for providing false or misleading information

You should be aware there are substantial penalties for making false or misleading statements in, or in connection with, an application.

The Office of State Revenue, as part of its role in administering the First Home Owner Grant Act 2000, conducts investigations and compliance checks to ensure applicants are entitled to receive the grant.

A penalty of up to $11 000 may be imposed for knowingly making a false or misleading statement in, or in connection with, an application. In addition, the Chief Commissioner of State Revenue can, as a result of an applicant's dishonesty, also require the applicant to repay the grant and impose a further penalty equal to the value of the grant paid.

How to complete this addendum

Only complete one of the following parts:

- Part A ➤ to be completed by applicants who have entered into a contract to build a new home
- Part B ➤ to be completed by applicants who have entered into a contract to buy a new home (not being a contract to buy a new home off the plan)
- Part C ➤ to be completed by applicants who are owner builders and who have constructed a new home
- Part D ➤ to be completed by applicants who have contracted to buy a new home off the plan

NOTE: If you cannot provide all the information in either Part A, B, C or D but consider you may be eligible for the grant please contact our office.
